

Benefits, numbers and how-to's when finding a job or employee through Recruitment Agencies

People hired through recruitment in the year 2013

60 million people total worldwide!

Industries using recruitment agencies

Benefits for companies

Agencies save companies a lot of time. Companies no longer need to filter through CVs or screen applicants, agencies do prior.

Recruiters make sure that they send the best person for the job.

Success of a candidate is important to agencies, making their relationship strong. There's more value in a candidate this way.

Agencies may have access to the best candidates. Talent is always registered in recruiters databases, and can easily be found for a new vacancy.

Benefits for job seekers

Agencies advise candidates on the type of questions that may be asked during the interview, in order for them to be properly prepared.

The service is free of charge. You're getting help finding a job for free!

Candidates are given a real insight to a company's culture beyond anything Google could tell them.

Agencies only send job opportunities to candidates for an interview when they know the person and the company are a good match- saving job seekers lots of time.

Recruitment consultants have a huge network..

So how can you be found?

Job Seekers

Register on our website

Apply directly for a vacancy you find interesting

If you fit the profile, we contact you and have a quick chat over the phone to get to know what your requirements are

Then we might proceed to a more in depth interview about past experience, skills and personality

Preparation for the interview with XYZ company

Interview Day

Feedback

Companies

We post your vacancy on our website anonymously

When your vacancy receives applications, we pick out the profile(s) that fit your specifications

We send you the candidates CV and a memo detailing our impressions of the candidate and any additional information not found on the CV

If interested we schedule an interview place and time

Interview Day

Feedback

YOU'RE HIRED!

